Why you Should Attend?

Lawyers and legal executives are increasingly called upon to help out or offer an opinion in areas of corporate finance. This course is designed to give them the essential tools to do just that. If you need to understand the financial risks being run by the organization, if you also need to have a basic awareness of financial analysis, its language and other credit issues, then this is the training you need.

You will gain a wide range of practical experience through many exercises, discussions and case studies. Our finance training directly addresses delegate challenges and learning objectives leading to the understanding of the principles of corporate finance. Over 50% of the course is going to be delegate input, discussions, working in groups and analysing financial data.
